

Aseel Mansour

Athens, GA | mnsraseel@gmail.com | 706-248-3054

EDUCATION

University of Georgia

Bachelor of Science, Public Health | Emphasis: Health Promotion

- Awards/Honors: Dean's List | Harris Scholarship Recipient

Athens, GA

Summer 2026

WORK EXPERIENCE

Athens Clarke County Library

Library Assistant (Lay Park and Aaron Heard Resource Center)

- Lead weekly children's literacy and craft programs serving 15+ attendees per session.
- Connect families with educational and health-related resources.
- Conduct monthly community outreach to promote library services among underserved families.

Athens, GA

October 2024 -Present

Family Connections-Communities In Schools

Youth Board Director

- Developed two youth surveys to assess community engagement and inform programs.
- Provided evidence-based recommendations to board members on improving youth community programs, resulting in positive feedback from stakeholders.
- Contributed to grant proposal development to secure funding for after-school programs.

Athens, GA

August 2021- September 2023

Athens Community Involvement

Co-Founder

- Initiated a student-led program engaging up to 50 students during the COVID-19 pandemic to address community needs.
- Communicated with 20+ local non-profits to expand program reach and resource availability.
- Managed and created social media campaigns, increasing program engagement.

Athens, GA

April 2021- May 2022

University of Georgia | Warnell School of Forestry and Natural Resources

Student Assistant

- Wrote R scripts for efficient species abundance, improving data accuracy for local bird populations.
- Analyzed blood smear under a microscope to accurately identify parasitic species.
- Communicated findings with graduate researchers and the Lab Manager to improve project workflow.

Athens, GA

September 2020 – January 2022

ACTIVITIES

Minorities in Public Health | University of Georgia

Vice President

- Co-lead an executive board of 7 members and planned monthly general body meetings for 20+ members.
- Guide the execution of two monthly service events addressing health disparities in local communities.

Athens, GA

May 2025 – Present

Co-External Community Service Chair

- Led 2-3 large-scale community service projects to address public health challenges in underserved communities.
- Collaborated with local organizations and student volunteers to design and implement impactful initiatives.

April 2024- April /2025

SKILLS

- Technical Skills: Process Management, Workflow Involvement, Data Analysis (Excel, R – intermediate)
- Analytical Skills: R Script Writing, Microscopy, Survey Development
- Languages: English (Native), Arabic (Native)